

THE GARDEN PATCH QUILT GUILD

September 30, 2011

Dear Teacher:

The Garden Patch Quilters will be conducting the biannual quilt show on March 17th and 18th, 2012, in the Event Center at Wheaton Arts and Cultural Center, Millville, New Jersey. One of the categories in which quilts may be entered for judging and/or display is the Junior Division. Quilts entered in this category must be made by children sixteen (16) years of age and under and made by a group or by an individual child. There is no entry fee for the Junior Division; however, each quilt must be registered in advance.

The Garden Patch Quilters want to encourage children to quilt, in order to keep the craft alive and to enjoy creating with fabric. We invite you and your class to enter a quilt or to have any of your students who may be interested to enter a quilt individually. Visitors to our show are very complimentary and enthusiastic about quilts made by students.

Enclosed are Registration and Rules of Entry forms which you may duplicate as needed. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the following:
